How to sell on Gembridge

How to sell on Gembridge

Gembridge Trade Members can list coloured gemstones and jewellery for sale individually or via bulk listings.

Listing on Gembridge	List single coloured gemstones, pairs, parcels or jewellery using our online form or bulk list your full digital catalogue (see following section 'Add Listings' for details). Minimum listing value is US$500.
B2B Trade & B2C Friends	You can choose to sell your stones and jewellery in our B2B Trade Marketplace or our B2C Friends Marketplace, or both.
Pricing & Sales Commissions	Gembridge asks you to set your net price then calculates the gross price by adding 8% sales commission to your listings sold in our B2B marketplace and 15% for those sold in our B2C marketplace. Online buyers know that transacting on Gembridge saves you up to 70% of your selling costs. They expect your prices to be very competitive.
Payment Collection	Once a stone is sold, Gembridge immediately collects the sales price and the cost of shipment/insurance from the Buyer.
Shipping	Gembridge informs the Seller that the payment has been collected and provides the shipping details. The stone must be shipped with 24 hours.
Import Duties/Local Taxes	Buyer is contacted by the shipper and pays import duties/local taxes before delivery.
Payment	Once delivered, Gembridge transfers the proceeds of the sale, net of commissions, to the Seller, and reimburses the cost of shipping/insurance.
Accurate Disclosure	IMPORTANT: A stone must match its cataloguing on Gembridge or the Buyer can return it. Buyer must make a report to Gembridge within 72 hours of delivery. Gembridge will send the stone to an accredited lab for testing. We strongly suggest that Sellers fully and accurately disclose all details (e.g. treatments) to ensure cataloguing information matches exactly.
